

To ensure that our partnership with you is positive enjoyable and productive, this document explains what we can expect of each other.

Mutual Expectations Your Partnership with Sustrans

Sustrans endeavours to

- Value, thank and support volunteers
- provide appropriate support and training
- ensure effective communication channels
- provide meaningful, worthwhile and rewarding volunteer activities
- reimburse agreed expenses
- meet with insurance and health and safety requirements
- provide tools to do the job

The volunteer's contribution is to:

- make a practical commitment to increase cycling and walking on the National Cycle Network
- promote and reflect the aims and values of Sustrans
- communicate and liaise effectively with both Sustrans staff and our partners
- be an effective team player with other volunteers
- follow health and safety procedures
- follow Sustrans volunteer guidelines as detailed in the Ranger handbook and newsletters and training
- undertake occasional training
- inform Sustrans if unable to undertake agreed tasks
